I strongly object to any changes in rules that would permit more monopolies. This would be a great dis-service to the listening public. People need a variety of news sources and stations close to the community.